

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Abeda Inamdar Senior College was established in the year 1991 with the objective to educate and empower women as a whole, with special emphasis to the economically, educationally and socially weaker sections of the society. The mission statement of the college - 'Read to Lead' is truly emblematic of this philosophy.

Empowerment, however, requires more than academic excellence. In today's competitive and demanding world, our students must also excel in sports and extracurricular activities. These will equip them with the necessary soft skills to go that extra mile. The college makes every possible attempt to synergize this into the academic process. The highly efficient teaching staff ensures academic excellence. Well-equipped library, sports complex and laboratories ensure an environment conducive to learning. Cultural gatherings, sports tournaments, publication of bulletins, exhibitions, seminars etc. all find their way in to the academic calendar of our college.

The college also fulfills its social obligations through the activities of its vibrant NSS Unit. Necessary computer and communication skills are imparted to the students in the college through its autonomous courses in Computers, Spoken English, Communication Skills & Personality Development. The relevance of such training can hardly be debated in any walk of life today.

It regularly arranges seminars, quiz, workshops and conferences at both state and national level. Guest lecturers from Industry and research institutes are invited on a regular basis for enlightening the students and staff. It also organizes industrial visits for students. Students appear in SPPU merit list consistently over the years. Research work is undertaken through BCUD and UGC projects.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The aim of the conference is to bring together academicians and researchers from all areas of Biology for a consensus on sustainable development goals (SDGs) as a mode of building a sustainable future in the face of the climate crisis. In 1987, the United Nations Brundtland Commission defined sustainability as “meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.” Science and technology for a sustainable future aids in better understanding of our environment and our impact on it, which is crucial for making smart decisions regarding judicious use of our resources. It is crucial to harmonize three core elements: economic growth, social inclusion and environmental protection to achieve sustainable development. The theme of our conference BIOSCIENCES FOR HARMONY WITH NATURE aims to help us find solutions to problems, such as climate change and pollution, and improve the quality of life for all.
