2.2-Admission policy for reserved category:

The college provides accessibility and equity in the admission policy and procedure. As the college is a Muslim minority institution, the Admission process is governed by the rules applicable to minority institutions as laid down by the state government and Savitribai Phule Pune University under the meaning of Article 30 (1) of the constitution of India.

As the college as is a Muslim minority institute, 50% of its seats are reserved for Muslim students. Of the remaining 50% seat, the state Government Reservation Policy is followed. This Reservation Policy is applicable for all grant-in-aid courses. The admission to the non-grantable courses is given on the basis of 50% reservation for the Muslim minority students and 50% of seats are for other students. However in this quota admissions are given to students from reserved categories as well.
